

Lee Scoggins Memorial Scholarship

Sponsored by the Texas City ISD Foundation for the Future

The Lee Scoggins Memorial Scholarship Fund was originally conceived in 2006 by Howard Scoggins and his children Wally Scoggins, Tracy Pfisterer, and Sherry Griesen.

Through this scholarship, we remember Lee's passion for life, her journey and growth through art, the community of artists who touched her life, and her belief in the extraordinary talents and treasures within everyone.

Her family provides this gift in recognition of her artistic talent, her dedication, and unending wish to always encourage and share with others those gifts that blessed and enriched her life.

VISIONS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP: To recognize and encourage high school students who have demonstrated desire and creative talent in the visual arts and financially need assistance to pursue their interests in this field.
