

The Erica Allen Memorial Scholarship Fund

Sponsored by Heights Elementary School

The Erica Allen Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in 2021 to honor the memory and legacy of TCISD Principal Erica Rene Wroblewski Allen, who served as an administrator in the Texas City schools of Levi Fry Intermediate and Heights Elementary. As an administrator, Mrs. Allen led with integrity, consistency, and compassion. Her students were motivation and drive in her educational career. Her most loved education experience was serving as the principal of Heights Elementary School.

VISION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP: This scholarship is intended to recognize graduating seniors from Texas City High School who attended Heights Elementary for at least one (1) school year and have post-secondary plans to continue their education in a college/university/community college setting and/or a trade/service college/education setting. Ideal applicants consistently exhibit integrity, exemplify determination for educational success through grades and/or conduct, and pursue school/community/family leadership opportunities.
