JIMMY HAYLEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Sponsored by the Texas City ISD Foundation for the Future

The Jimmy Hayley Memorial Scholarship was established in 2016 by Jane Hayley and sons Jerry and Jason. Through this scholarship, we remember Jimmy's passion for the Texas City-La Marque communities and the life-long service he provided as a community leader. Jimmy showed that relationships and service were vital to the success of community growth and exemplified these principals in his everyday life.

VISION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP: It is the intent of this scholarship to recognize graduating seniors from Texas City High School and La Marque High School for their community service and who have a financial need to further their education at a junior college, technical school or community college. Students should possess a good GPA during high school that represents a commitment to their education.

JIMMY HAYLEY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Sponsored by Texas City ISD Foundation for the Future

BACKGROUND:

The Jimmy Hayley Memorial Scholarship was established in 2016 by Jane Hayley and sons Jerry and Jason. Through this scholarship, we remember Jimmy's passion for the Texas City-La Marque communities and the life-long service he provided as a community leader. Jimmy showed that relationships and service were vital to the success of community growth and exemplified these principals in his everyday life.

VISION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP:

It is the intent of this scholarship to recognize graduating seniors from Texas City High School and La Marque High School for their community service and who have a financial need to further their education at a junior college, technical school or community college.

DISBURSMENT PROCEDURES:

Upon awarding the scholarships each year, the Foundation will issue a check to Texas City ISD(TCISD) for $1,000 per recipient along with recipient's name and address. TCISD will pay the scholarship amount directly to the school once a schedule of registration fees is received.
